of Truth, Goodness and Beauty*

Creative Catholic Work's mission is to enable families to discover the strength and peace that comes with collaborating with God in all aspects of their lives. We believe this is achieved by exploring the truth and beauty of the Catholic faith through art and education.

Our goal is for families to cultivate a healthy understanding of human dignity and how we are meant to exist in this world as God intended. We support local communities with educational media and events that uplift and inspire. Our work is rooted in Catholic tradition and inspired by Pope John Paul II's Theology of the Body teachings which beautifully define the concept of self-gift.

We are looking for committed donors to partner with us by underwriting current projects so we can consistently produce quality content.

PROJECTS IN NEED OF UNDERWRITING

The Call - serving God's people

The call to religious life is more important than ever for our society to survive the many attacks on what is good and pure. Without priests, we have no mass. Without Sisters, many in need are left to fend for themselves. Our goal is to inspire families to promote such vocations to their sons and daughters with as much enthusiasm as any other career choice. Providing parents with great examples is our calling!

This series of short videos will capture the day in the life those called to serve as priests and sisters. We will choose a diverse group of men and women who will share their journeys, including how they responded to their personal call to serve God in such a way. The viewer will get a glimpse of the challenges and joys that come with serving God's people.

There are so many touching stories from families who have had profound experiences from people they call "Father" or "Sister." These stories need to be in the mainstream so that young people can discover the truth and beauty of such a vocation.

As a bonus for those featured, we will make each story available at no cost to each participant for their parish website or personal use.

Minimum 2-day shoot and 5-day edit per story.

Cost: $15k per story.

“The Meaning of Love” by John Hamlon

An in-depth course on the meaning of Marriage and Family, Sex and Sexuality, and what it means to be man and woman. This Catholic vision is based on an historical perspective of the work of Saint Pope John Paul II.

John Hamlon—author, administrator, instructor; pioneer in the teaching of the Theology of the Body and co-founder of the first Natural Family Planning center in San Francisco—is a veteran teacher of NFP and marriage preparation.

He has spent the last several years paring down his semester-long class into small chunks suitable for dissemination on the internet. He has written a companion book and gives talks on the TOB throughout the US. He has a devoted following especially among young adults who thirst for the truth of Catholic teaching.

"John's course is truly is life-changing! I only wish I had been given this information early in our married life. I've used the material with teens, those who struggle with same-sex attraction, married, and single folks, and it's been met with joyful surprise. I cannot recommend this course highly enough, or often enough, and I do to anyone who will listen."

TOB Minutes – Animation Project

Several years ago, we were asked to produce a series of radio spots for Immaculate Heart Radio with the goal being a sort of “TOB for dummies” to help people understand the Theology of the Body in “bite-sized” portions. These 40 radio spots featuring Klarissa Chichioco were a hit and are still playing across the country on Catholic radio stations. We intend to turn them into animated segments that will be connected to TOB class curriculum for Catholic education in both Catholic schools and CCD programs.

We developed a concept animation but are now looking to refine it and produce the entire series. We would like to produce a “pilot” that would represent the look and feel for the rest of the series.

Work to-do: Develop creative treatment, design and editorial.

Cost: $50k - cost for one pilot animation which will become the template for the series.

Other CCW News

In the Spring of 2020, CCW began the first of a series collaborations with The Culture Project. Our target audience were CCD programs in Marin County. CCW’s Executive Director Chris Miloslavich and two Culture Project missionaries hosted a parent talk followed by a talk on Human Dignity for 7th/8th graders. Our goal is to continue with regular talks in the Fall and Spring of every school year.

These talks give Catholic families with children in public schools, useful information that help them navigate complicated subjects such as human dignity, sexual integrity, and the healthy use of social media. CCW’s Chris Miloslavich was invited to serve on the Culture Project Regional Development Board. Read Chris’ story regarding his involvement with CP and how its mission aligns with that of CCW.

CP CULTURE
EMPOWERING OUR YOUTH

Uniting all Marin County Faith Formation Programs!

EVENT	GOAL	WHEN
Parent Introduction to The Culture Project's Social Media talk for teens in Marin County.	To equip parents with tools that empower teens by understanding the power of virtue!	Parent Event: Nov. 2nd - 7:7:40PM Youth Event: Nov. 4th - 7:8pm (via Zoom)

With the advent of modern technology, smart phones, and social media our world has changed forever. How do we navigate this ever-evolving social landscape that no generation has had to navigate before?

Designed to follow-up our Human Dignity presentation, this talk will engage students in a dialogue about how to integrate virtue and excellence into their use of Social Media.

We discuss how our use of media can either contribute to or endanger our personal happiness, our relationships, and the type of person we ultimately become. We share the great benefits to using social media, as well as how to avoid some of its biggest downsides, such as comparison, isolation, inauthenticity, even habits like cyber-bullying and sexting.

Through the use of stories, cultural examples, and personal witness, we invite students to consider their own use of media and how we can all utilize the incredible tools that our modern day offers to become a force for good in our communities and become people who leave a lasting positive impact on our world.

Parish Prayer Events

We recently collaborated with Msgr. Padazinski at Saint Patrick Parish in Larkspur to put on a weeknight prayer service for those in need of healing, specifically two young mothers recently diagnosed with cancer.

It was a well-attended and well-received evening of Adoration, rosary prayers and meditative music by world-class harpist Anna Maria Mendieta.

This project was not professionally recorded. "Simplicity" was the theme for the evening as we wanted to focus strictly on having those in attendance experience this service. Our goal is to assist parishes around the Bay Area to put on such events that utilize the beautiful traditions of our Catholic Church. Future events would be captured using multiple cameras and microphones with the finished product made available on YouTube.

Tota Pulchra Music Project

This is how CCW came to be. Cofounder Michele Coldiron approached media producer Chris Miloslavich, to help produce this CD. We turned it into a live performance showcased in the three Bay Area cathedrals in 2011/2012. We plan to follow-up this project with a World Music version that will feature contributions from Africa, South America and more. Our ultimate goal for this project is to perform it live in Lourdes.
